

Wymondley Wood Scout and Guide Centre Traversing Forest Pole

Assessed by: David Hawkins
Reviewed By : D Hawkins

Date: September 2016
Date: August 25

Hazard / Risk	Outcome / Injury	Persons at risk	Risk Rating	Control Measures	Adequate	Remaining Risk
Equipment	Physical injury, cuts, grazes, bruises	All	M	All equipment is visually inspected on a quarterly basis for evidence of protruding / damaged parts splintering of the wood foot / hand holds	Y	L
			M	Leader in charge to visually inspect equipment before use for evidence of damage If damage is found equipment not to be used and reported to duty warden	Y	L
Supervision	Physical injury, cuts, grazes, bruises	All	L	Leaders to provide adequate supervision taking into account the age of the young people and any special needs Leaders to instruct young people on use of equipment before use.	Y	L
Falling off equipment	Physical injury,	All	L	All activity supervised by a Leader or responsible adult.	Y	L
Inclement weather	Physical injury,	All	L	Equipment not to be used if it becomes to slippery	Y	L
Horseplay	Physical injury,	All	L	Young people have been instructed on appropriate behaviour whilst using the equipment All activity supervised by a Leader or responsible adult.	Y	L